WAKE FOREST COLLEGE

Winston-Salem, N. C.

F O R E W O R D

The graduating class of 1959 represents the last group of students who remember life on the old campus. No longer will reminiscent eyes yearn for the comfort of the huge enveloping magnolia trees, so typical of the original site in Wake County. The seniors, however, have left with us the true Wake Forest spirit and traditions although modified by the new location of the campus. Now we have the responsibility of not only keeping alive these traditions but also of developing new ones in order to meet the challenges of a fast-changing world. The 1959 HOWLER staff hopes that the thoughts, experiences, and joys depicted herein will remind you of a wonderful year at Wake Forest College.

Miss Lois Johnson

D E D I C A T I O N

In their long search to find just the right person to serve as the first Dean of Women, the Trustees in 1942 made the wise decision of offering the position to Miss Lois Johnson. With an ever-present expression of wise judgment and high Christian ideals, she has become an intrinsic part of the college life. Her gracious manner and personal interest in each girl has won the love and respect of all. It is with gratitude and devotion that we dedicate this, the 1959 Howler, to Miss Johnson.

Miss Barbara Jane Bailey

Rutlin Inn of Phi Delta Phi has afforded its members much activity in the line of scholarship, athletics, and social life. The achievement of the Faculty Scholarship Trophy for 1957-58 marked the twelfth consecutive year in which our Inn has received this reward. There was not only excellence in scholarship, but also in the field of athletics when Rutlin Inn in conjunction with the "Legal Eagles" won the campus championship in football. The spring initiation climaxed a successful grind for the third year students and provided a goal for the first and second year students.

Members of Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity.

Jackson, Clerk; Darwkins, Vice-Justice; Benfield, Justice; Matthews, Treasurer; Goodwyn, Marshal.

The Timberlake Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta Law Fraternity was organized at Wake Forest on October 17, 1947, and took its name after Dr. Edgar W. Timberlake, an outstanding professor of law at Wake Forest. The fraternity attempts to emulate the humility, sincerity, and gentlemanly conduct of Dr. Timberlake. Activities are aimed at improving the professional abilities of its members and acquainting them with leaders of the bar. It serves the law student as did the Inns of Court in days of Lord Coke, providing a congenial atmosphere for study and instilling lifelong camaraderie.

Mrs. Maron W. Benfield, Jr.

Members of Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity.

ATHLETICS

Mr. Bill Gibson, Director of Athletics.

"Coach" Murray Creason, Athletic Co-ordinator.

FOOTBALL

Mr. Jesse Haddock, Assistant Athletic Director.

Mr. Lewis Martin, new Wake Forest trainer.

This season after brilliant victories over Maryland, Virginia Tech, and N. C. State, and a rating in the top twenty teams in the country, the Demon Deacons hit a slump and lost the remainder of their games. There is one consolation, every team we played had to really scrap to beat us. This year's team was led by the play of Neil MacLean and Norman Sneed in the backfield, and Frank Thompson, Hughie Lewis, and Buck Jolley in the line.

Head football coach Paul Amen.

1958 Football co-captains, Charlie Carpenter and Frank Thompson.

COACHES

Although we did not have an excellent record this year, it was better than the 1957 record. This was due to a promising group of sophomores. Next season with 21 returning lettermen, the Demon Deacons should really roll. The captains for next season are Buck Jolley, center, and Neil MacLean, fullback. They replace the 1958 captians, Charlie Carpenter and Frank Thompson.

Wake Forest's coaching staff: Hietikko, Amen, Consoles, Wable, Hildebrand, Gibson, Barbour.

It will be led by Phil Wiechman, Ronnie Thomas, and Tommy Helms and are equal to or superior to any linkmen in the conference. Coach McKinney does not expect quite so good a team as last year because of lack of depth in this year's team. He does expect a very creditable performance during the season.

The varsity swimming team had a disappointing season this year, but closed on a high note capturing six medals at the Atlantic Coast Conference Swimming Championships. Coach Elison is looking forward to a successful season next year with most of his lettermen returning. The biggest loss will be Talbert, who has been the leading scorer for the past two years. The rising freshmen squad who won ten medals in the Freshmen Invitational should help the team a lot.

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

The intramural program is planned for the students. It includes football, basketball, tennis, softball, water polo, swimming, wrestling, golf, horseshoe, and rifle marksmanship. Every student on the campus has an opportunity to participate in these intramurals, leading to competition between fraternity and independent leagues for the campus championship.

Team sport managers are, kneeling: Loftin, softball; Huskins, intramural manager. Standing: Lowe, volleyball; Greer, field hockey; and Measner, basketball.

Some who took part in intramural swimming were: Pinyoon, Canady, Blanton, Croner, Howard, and Brooks, manager.

WOMEN'S INTRAMURALS

Intramurals for women are sponsored by the Women's Recreation Association. The program consists of tournaments in volleyball, basketball, tennis, field hockey, softball, and swimming. The teams are from dorms, societies, and independent groups and vie for top honors in the tournaments. Girls who obtain the required number of points through participation in both team and individual sports earn their White Jackets key or the much sought after Wake Forest blanket.

Individual sport managers are, kneeling: Wallace, shuffle-board; Godwin, table tennis. Standing: Easton, tennis; Smathers, archery; Brown, badminton; Poole, golf.

ACTIVITIES

Harvey Durham fulfilled well the position as our Student Government President.

Charles Deane, as Vice-President, led the legislature in its years work.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

As Secretary of the Student Body we elected Marlene McLamb.

And for the position of Treasurer, we chose Earl Shatz.

LEGISLATURE

HONOR COUNCIL

Social Standards Committee members are: Green, York, Myers, Wilcox, Hoffeld, Chairman; Lee, Painter, Sabret, Julian, Tynor, Hunt, Whitehead, Daniels.

Home Presidents: Mitchell, McLamb, Jovic, and Prinde.

WGA

The Women's Government Association, an organization composed of all women students of the college, spent a busy and fruitful year. The Christmas Dance, the Faculty Reception, and the Magnolia Dance were just a few of the activities the group sponsored. These events along with the problems faced, the adjustments made, and the friendships formed left the women students with lasting memories of a year as a Wake Forest co-ed.

Officers of W.G.A. are: Prinde, Jovic, Kimble, Bacon, Mitchell, Hedrick, Youngblood, President, Freeman, McLamb, Hoffeld, McDonald, and Howard

Each evening in Davis Chapel, Vespers can be attended.

Chapel Speaker this year was Dick Burleson.

CHAPEL

Chapel programs this year were led by chapel speaker, Dick Burleson. Heading the chapel planning committee was Jerry Crawford. Programs in chapel were of an excellent nature this year consisting of a visit from Billy Graham, and talks by leading integrationists and segregationists. Along the music line, we had a concert by the W.F.C. band and another visit from the Winston-Salem Teachers College Choir.

Chapel Chairman: Jerry Crawford.

Members of the Orientation Committee are, seated: Stafford, Young, Mauney, Julian, Private, Wilcox, Freeman, Street, Schoonmaker, Rooks. Standing: Mad-drey, Price, Merryman, Darcson, Falls.

Members of the B.S.U. Executive Council, seated: Earp, Picklesimer, Binkley, Poole, Payne. Second row: Prucette, Christman, Harvey, Deal, Pruden. Third row: Williams, Redzime, Redator, Young, Wells.

Sam Harvey, B.S.U. President.

B. S. U.

Contemporary literature discussion groups were organized for the first time this year. Much interest was shown in the two groups, led by Dr. F. G. Wilson and Dr. Dan O. Via.

Students gave generously to the Listen program, which renders technical, medical, educational, and spiritual aid to those in need. Several sacrificial meals were sponsored by the Listen committee.

In March a play, "Cry of the Beloved Country," was presented in chapel. It was a joint effort of students from Wake Forest and Winston-Salem Teachers College.

The week-end student-led programs of the Extension Department were presented in some twenty-five churches in North Carolina and Virginia. Eighty-five students participated and traveled well over 3,000 miles.

Workshops were held during the year to train students in extension work, music, recreation, and drama.

There were five issues of the Deacon's View, the B.S.U. newspaper. The activities of the college Sunday School, Training Union, the Ministerial Conference, Christian Education and Service Club, and the Y.W.A.'s were coordinated by the B.S.U. A daily vesper service held in Davis Chapel provided a regular opportunity for meditation and prayer.

The local organization was one of the sponsors of Religion in Life week in February. It also supported the state-wide B.S.U. Fall Convention, Spring Leadership Conference, and International Student Retreat.

The Baptist Student Union is a voluntary movement of

RETREAT

Baptist students who are seeking a mature faith in Christ which they can share with others. It is an organization which provides opportunities for growth through study, worship, and service.

Sam Harvey, senior pre-ministerial student, has served this year as B.S.U. President, and Edgar D. Christian, a Wake Forest graduate, is B.S.U. Director. Three members of the local organization have held state B.S.U. offices this year. Sam Harvey has served as President pro-tem, Janie Dale Poole as Y.W.A. President, and Earl Shaw as Student Representative to the General Board of the North Carolina State Baptist Convention.

EXTENSION

The first event of the year was a three-day, pre-school retreat held at Camp Hanes. At the retreat 45 freshmen and 90 upperclassmen worshipped, studied, and had fellowship together. The theme "Quo Vadis?" was developed by the Rev. Warren Carr, Mrs. Miriam Prichard, Dr. Glenn Blackburn, and Dr. Jack Noffsinger.

One of the outstanding features of the B.S.U. program was the monthly supper forums. These forums, sometimes known as Skeptic's Hours, provided an opportunity for serious examination of the Christian faith. The program personnel presented many viewpoints, including liberalism, and fundamentalism.

B.S.U. Extension Team members are: Williams, Harvey, C. Williams, Puklesimer, Redwine, Payne, Dod, Hayes.

Y.W.A. Members are: Sommeron, Blanton, Williams, Stephenson, Payne, President; Ludlum, Paschal, Blackburn, Thompson, Gray, Garratt. Second row Jackson, Evans, Cross, Johnson, Laid, Wright, Willard, Godwin, Jones, Deering, Hyman, Piekelsimer. Third row Poole, Funderburk, Fuller, Allen, Measmer, Millsaps, Bradley, Larp, White.

Y. W. A.

Monthly supper meetings headed the list of Y.W.A. activities, led by Bertie Chloe Payne, president. Listen Fund collection was sponsored in the girls' dorms. A study course at the Barn brought "Echoes From Indonesia." The Lottie Moon Christmas Offering for foreign missions was emphasized in December. Y.W.A. members participated in morning prayer services and Vespers during the special mission week. An original skit and a banquet were spring events. For June brides, the White Bible Ceremony was a special surprise.

Special community mission activities included welcome favors for freshmen, tray favors for Baptist Hospital patients, and Christmas caroling.

WESTMINSTER FELLOWSHIP

The Westminster Fellowship, under the leadership of Ann Wilson, met every Thursday night in the west wing of the cafeteria for supper and a program. The Fellowship's project for the year was organization of a Westminster Fellowship at the Winston-Salem Teachers College. Wake Forest was represented at various times during the year at Westminster Fellowship conferences. Several of the group also attended conferences at the Union Theological Seminary at Richmond, Virginia.

Westminster members are, row one: Glenn, Leaman, Byers, Griffin, Wilson, Hruslinski, Hoffman, Files, Rev. Smith.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND SERVICE CLUB

The Christian Education and Service Club is composed of men and women who are interested in becoming Directors of Christian Education or in doing any type of Christian service. In preparation for this important life's work, the members are given practical experience by carrying out several projects of service such as helping at the First Baptist Church (colored) and the Friendship Baptist Church (colored) and giving worship services at the Baptist Home for the Aged once each week.

The club also had several social activities including a box supper, Christmas caroling, parties, and a banquet.

Under the leadership of Nancy Pickelsimer the club had a most successful year.

CULLOM MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION

The Cullom Ministerial Conference was initiated at Wake Forest College by Dr. W. R. Cullom in 1896. Coming to the Department of Religion, Dr. Cullom found nothing special in the routine of college life for young ministers. He suggested that the ministerial students should meet weekly to talk over the main lines of a minister's work. When Dr. Cullom retired from the classroom, the group voted to name the organization after its leader.

The conference provides its own programs, inviting outstanding ministers, laymen, and members of our own faculty. The programs seek to deal with the problems of the ministry and discuss secular ideas of interest.

WESLEY

The Wesley Foundation offers a fourfold program of common worship, common study, fellowship, and witness. Through a study group program, members studied the Christian faith in relation to modern literature. Meetings were held three times each week in the form of a Sunday Seminar, a Sunday evening program, and a combination supper and worship service on Wednesdays.

CANTERBURY

Canterbury offers an opportunity for Episcopal students to meet, study, and be a witness to the Lordship of Christ. Weekly programs included speakers, films, and discussions. A service of Holy Communion was celebrated each month. The Rev. George A. Kemp, assistant rector of St. Paul's Church, was Chaplain. Officers were: Doug Bailey, president, Sylvia Hackett, vice-president; Margaret MacDonald, secretary-treasurer.

Canterbury members are - Rev. Kemp, Bailey, Prof. Scarlet, McDonald, Hackett, Jones, Joyce.

Members of Wake Forest's Touring Choir.

CHOIR

Providing music for the Thursday Chapel services as well as presenting other special programs during the year was the job handed to the Chapel Choir. Ably directed by Dr. Thane McDonald, the music department proudly presented the Twentieth Annual Christmas Vesper Service which included representative anthems from the traditional and contemporary Christmas repertoire. No one can doubt the superiority of our College Chapel Choir after hearing the presentations on both the informal and formal occasions. To represent the music of Wake Forest thirty-eight voices were chosen to form the College Touring Choir.

Even the worst chapel programs were made tolerable by the chapel choir.

Pub Board advisors: Folk, Wilson, Sundev, Burrangh.

PUB BOARD

Publications Board is made up of the editors and business managers of each publication and the faculty advisor of each. This board elects those who will head the publications for the following year. This year Hannah Miller served as president of Pub Board, Bob Fitzgerald as vice-president, and Dick Avery as the secretary.

Pub Board members are: Winifry Whicker, Opie Wells, Hannah Miller, President; Dick Avery, Secretary; Jerry Matherly.

Chief Announcer, Jim Ezzell.

Gene Glasco, Business Manager.

WFDD

With programs ranging from music to theological discussions, WFDD, the Wake Forest College radio station, is on the air from 3:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. on weekdays and 24 hours a day during exams. It reaches all on-campus students through a direct current into the dorms but does not have an off-campus frequency, although it sometimes operates through WSJS. In addition to the 20 to 30 students required to maintain a full staff throughout the school semester, WFDD has had this year, for the first time, a full-time paid advisor.

STUDENT

The Student Magazine made statewide headlines in its first issue with a thought-provoking editorial urging integration at Wake Forest. Throughout the rest of the year, the high quality of the magazine's content and the courageous editorials of Jerry Matherly continued to provoke much on-campus discussion. Six issues were filled with the work of both old and new poets, writers and artists.

the previous year, life in The Student office went on much as usual. The only couch on Pub Row continued to furnish comfort to all the publication staffs. The cider jug, still half-full, stood behind the door. A disconcerting innovation for some old-timers was the cleanliness of the office, caused by energetic production manager Barbara Sue Cook. But in spite of its new neatness, The Student carried on its share of the Pub Row traditions during its seventy-seventh year.

THE 1959

The 1959 Howler staff has worked hard and long during much of the year. At first work was very easily put off and the deadline being so far away it was pretty generally agreed that there was no need to rush things. Around December several members of the staff were quite surprised to find out there were only a couple of months left to get everything in to the publishers. With much fussing for people to get their pictures taken and to get their copy in, and much worry that the staff could not get the work done on time anyway, things were finally completed. On these two pages we present the staffs of the 1959 Howler.

PHI'S

Donnie Griffin served successfully as Phi president.

The Philomathesian Literary Society is an active organization which is interested in the improvement of its members in the fields of correct speaking and constructive thinking.

The topics which are discussed in the society are of current importance as is denoted by a list of this year's programs. One lecture of current importance was the "Beat Generation" and an equally interesting discussion was held concerning the book, The Organization Man.

The goal of the society is the improvement of Wake Forest College through literary activities. The society believes this goal has been attained this year under the leadership of Joe Grubbs and Don Griffin who have served with efficiency in the office of president of the society.

EU'S

"We, the members of the Euzelian Society, of Wake Forest College, believing that a literary society is beneficial to our intellectual, cultural, and forensic development, do ordain and establish this constitution." This, the Preamble to the Society Constitution, has been re-emphasized this year with programs alternating between lectures by outside speakers and student participation programs. Initiating twelve new members in the fall semester swelled both the enrollment and the treasury. Draperies were suggested for the windows to enhance the appearance of "Eu" Hall, 230 Reynolda. Meeting on alternate Mondays, loyal followers of Mother Euzelia were given many chances for cultural and forensic improvement. Regaining the Inter-Society Cup was a constant goal.

Alpha Kappa Psi business fraternity began the year with a smoker at which the Comptroller of Hanes Mills Co., Mr. Philip Whiting, spoke. Gamma Delta Chapter of Wake Forest acted as host to the mid-east district conference. At the closing session banquet Mr. Townsend, National President of Alpha Kappa Psi, was the speaker.

The Gamma Nu chapter of the Delta Sigma Pi, International Business Fraternity, had an interesting and productive year. This was the fraternity's ninth year on our campus.

The officers for the year were John H. Carrrell, Jr., president, Boyce Wilson, vice-president, O. Tom Dancy, secretary, and Charles Stron, treasurer.

This year the APO Service Fraternity has extended its hand of service to many areas of campus life. Among other activities it published a student-faculty directory, operated a book exchange, and was active in building a student car wash. APO also sponsored the annual Ugly Man Contest, and continued work on a picnic area.

This year Delta Kappa Nu established the Business Woman Student of the Year Award to honor the most outstanding senior business major. Other worthwhile projects included building a library of shorthand records for dictation, inviting representatives from various fields of business to speak, and selling hot coffee and doughnuts for Sunday morning breakfast.

The Wake Forest Band lent support as well as entertainment during the football season.

Majorettes: Daniel, Hughes, Saffert, Rose, Mattos, Harrell, Binch, Hedrick.

BAND

Featuring eight of the finest majorettes found anywhere, the Band put spirit into the long Saturday afternoons this fall with their showy half-time performances. In Clemson the band and Deacon Bill Shepherd, always the friend and co-star with the band, captured the hearts and the headlines of the state.

In New York last May, whether they were marching down Fifth Avenue or a concert before the Customs House, this faithful and spirited group left Wake Forest a well-known and highly respected name. A plaque presented by the American Legion at its National Convention is proof of this for the band's "dramatic demonstration of the unity and concord of all Americans and manifestation of true American brotherhood."

CHEERLEADERS

Promoting school spirit at athletic events is the primary aim of the nine cheerleaders elected each spring by the student body. To them goes the credit for organizing and leading pep rallies, bonfires, and parades.

W R A

Wake Forest College would not be complete without the happy faces of the members of W.R.A., an organization for coeds.

Betty Bolt, President, was busy leading the coeds in intramurals, Sports Days, and other events sponsored by W.R.A.

White jackets, college blankets, and silver bowls are visible symbols of a successful W.R.A. member.

ORCHESIS CLUB

The Orchesis Club, with Mrs. Clyde H. Dornbusch as its advisor, gave two presentations this year. A recital was given in December, and in May the Club performed at the Magnolia Court in honor of the Queen.

Orchesis Club members are, front row in the mirror Earp, Greer, Lowe, Safriet, Loftin, Allen, Broadway, Timus. Second row Funderburke, Bradgers, Parker, Cheek, Bridges, Reeves, Murray, Brooks.

F.T.A. members are, seated - Friedman, Severt, Chan (guest), Brown, York, president; Avery, Finch, Cooke, Kassir (guest). Standing - Whitehead, Paschal, Luckey, Proksimer, Huskins, Myers, Tucker, Wilson, Smith, Wallace, Woody, Downing.

F T A

The Future Teachers of America, organized to help prospective teachers develop a professional attitude and learn more about their chosen field, met once each month throughout the year. On November 8, 1958, the chapter acted as host for the 1,000 delegates to the annual fall convention for high school F.T.A. chapters. Speakers, movies, and color slides provided entertainment as well as information. Members doing their student teaching had an opportunity to use in their classrooms the facts and hints given in F. T. A. meetings.

The International Relations Club of Wake Forest College, devoted to the understanding of world affairs, has thirty members. Dr. Roy Jumper of the political science department, is advisor. Meetings featured debates, lectures, and programs concerning international affairs. Members attended the Model United Nations meeting in Chapel Hill and various regional conferences. The club has affiliated with the International Association. Officers: Edhie Allen, President, Wayne Smith and Don Schoonmaker, Vice-Presidents, and Janice Allen, Secretary.

IRC

IRC Members are, standing - Lennon, Day, Shatz, Anderson, Pruden, Ramsay. Seated - E. Allen, Hampton, Prof. Boole, Allen, Evans.

Y D C

Wake Forest's Young Democrats' Club, under President James C. Davis, third year law student, had its most successful year. There was a larger membership, more social activities, and very interesting meetings this year. Two State Presidents, Robert M. Davis, 1958, and Art Vann, 1959, spoke to the club. Members attended the State Convention and helped elect Robert L. Satterfield, a law student, as State Secretary. The club was very fortunate in being able to work the polls on election day and have a hand in the Democratic landslide victory.

Professor Shirley's debate team started off by entering the Novice Tournament held at Wake Forest.

Next was the Dixie Classic Tournament including W.F.C., Notre Dame, University of Florida, and Duke. The debaters then travelled to Pittsburgh.

After examinations, a trip to the University of Miami. February included tournaments at William and Mary, the Capitol Hill tournament at Maryland, and a trip to the Northwestern Owen-Coon tournament. The season ended in April with a trip to Florida.

DEBATE

ORGAN GUILD

The Wake Forest Organ Guild, under the auspices of the American Guild of Organists, is sponsored by Dr. Paul S. Robinson. Organized during the fall of 1957, the Guild meets regularly each month to study and share ideas about organs and church music. Led by Raymond Ebert, current president, members saw the Flentrop Organ at Salem College during one of its meetings; at another, Dr. Robinson led a discussion and demonstration on good church music. A scrapbook is being made of articles and pictures from The Diapason, the national magazine to which the Guild subscribes.

MARITIMERS CLUB

The Maritimer Aquatics Club worked on two productions this year: a recital in December in which the central theme was "The Littlest Angel" and a major production in the spring at which the Miss Maritimer award was presented. The purpose of the recital in December is to renew interest in the club and enlist new members for the main production in the spring. The club emphasizes the mastering of aquatic skill and synchronized swimming.

STUDENT UNION

Student Union is exactly what the name implies—a union of all the students. In its initial year of existence the Union has become important in the lives of all the people here at Wake Forest College. This success can probably be contributed to the excellent co-operation of the administration and the active interest and participation of the vast majority of the students.

The purpose of the Student Union is to co-ordinate, increase, and develop the social, recreational, and educational activities available to Wake Forest College students. Homecoming, shows, parties, dances, games, movies, lectures, and the television lounge and recreation room have been some of the projects undertaken. The availability of the "Barn," provided by the Wake Forest College Baptist Church, greatly enhanced the success of the program.

But the Union is more than just a building, an organization, or a program. It is people working and playing together with a desire to make their stay at Wake Forest more meaningful and profitable.

Guiding the activities of the new Student Union were: Mike Price, Vice-President; Janice Prude, Secretary; and Earl Shaw, President.

Student Union Committee Chairmen.

Make-up is an important job and these girls prefer to do their own.

Joe Weston, president of the Interfraternity Council.

IFC

The Interfraternity Council is an organization in which all ten fraternities are included as members. It is the purpose of the I.F.C. to supervise and control the fraternities in general. This included functions, and interfraternity competition. It is also the purpose of the I.F.C. to foster and promote good will among the fraternities, the administration, independent students, and outsiders.

Included in the interfraternity activities this year were such things as the pledge dance and the annual Greek Week. Greek Week was climaxed by the Mid-Winters Dances.

HOMECOMING

Fraternity men and co-eds worked far into the Friday night before Homecoming to ready exhibits in competition for the coveted decorations trophy. Delta Sigma Phi, with an original Deacon version of a "heaven and hell" scene, captured top honors.

Blue was the color of the day as the Deacons saw their Homecoming hopes bewitched by the Duke Blue Devils in a hard fought battle. Spirits were somewhat lifted during half-time ceremonies when Ann Hedgpeth, representing Kappa Sigma Fraternity, was crowned the new Miss Demon Deacon.

"Chantilly lace and a pretty face" were the order for the night as alumni and "under-grads" stepped lively to the music of the Les and Larry Elgart Band. This dance climaxed a busy week in which the student body joined in the festivities which traditionally accompany Homecoming.

Homecoming Queen, Ann Hedgpeth, realizes every girl's dream.

The Theta Chis had the right idea in their Homecoming decorations and came up with second place honors.

Cadets map out strategy on the dance floor.

At the traditional Military Ball, the Wake Forest R.O.T.C. cadets put aside their rifles to participate in the social functions of military life. Once more the efforts of R.O.T.C. cadets made a great success. This year Scabbard and Blade shared the responsibility with Pershing Rifles, a recently chartered chapter. With music for listening and dancing furnished by the well known Southerners and Miss Jew Baucom as Battle Group Sponsor, the third annual Military Ball was one of the best dances of the year.

1958 MILITARY BALL

1958 R.O.T.C. Company Sponsors were: Hill, Hobby, Cornwell, Luckey, Prickett, Simpkins, and Nuckols.

Greek Week, the four day I.F.C. event held in mid-February, included field events, group sings, and a beauty contest won by Miss Peggy Cryner.

"Fats" Domino provided music for the "rocking" Greeks at a dance Friday night and a concert Saturday afternoon. The strains of Lester Lamm and his musicians added just the right touch for the formal affair Saturday night in the Coliseum. With the playing of "I'll See You in My Dreams," the deacon Greeks and their lovely counterparts ended a perfect week end.

EDITORS

NOTES

It's all over! Ended are the four months of planning and then the nine more months of ordeals and fun, endless hours of editing, cropping and marking pictures, copy and proofreading, deadlines that were more demanding than homework and for which all else had to be dropped.

When the last deadline is met, an editor's relief is mixed with an empty feeling of a wonderful experience being over, anxiety that the students will like the book and deepest gratitude to his staff.

This yearbook is an attempt to present to you some of the life and spirit of the college year as well as an attempt to make a great college more meaningful to its students. Long hours of planning went into the HOWLER so as to portray a composite picture of life at Wake Forest. It has been designed to show the freshness and appeal of a new campus and we hope it will do so to all students alike—the education-minded scholar, the week-end party goer, the culture seeker and the challenge searching activity hound.

Before we leave you, we would like to single out for praise a few from such a large number of competent, interested and hard-working staff members. This is a difficult task indeed. We owe our special thanks to Irvin Grigg, our photographer, and to Ray Rollins who was always ready to take a last-minute, forgotten picture. Marvin Francis of the Sports Publicity Department and Frank Jones of the Journal-Sentinel also deserve special recognition for their assistance. William Oliver Smith of Edwards & Broughton and Doris Leeper of Southern will never be forgotten for their patience and gentle reminders.

The dedicated work of Jane Mitchell and Gladys Morgan as copy editors should receive the credit for the many lines of copy we so badly needed. Without Anne Whicker and Judy Shaw spending long afternoons saying "Watch the birdie!" we would not have had such interesting photographs for the yearbook. A diligent worker who deserves special thanks is Par Farson, our captions editor and no one can complain of the industry and outstanding ability of Bill Smith on the fraternity section and Joe Chambers on the sports pages. Dick Avery's year-long struggle with the paper work and efficient organization of the business staff resulted in a large sales record for the HOWLER.

It's time for us to leave you, so from the staff of the '59 HOWLER—good luck to you!

All engraving for the '59 Howler was done by Southern Photo Process Engraving Company of Atlanta. Edwards & Broughton Company of Raleigh printed the book. Body copy is set in 10 on 12 point Janson; captions are in 8 on 10 point Janson italics; heads are in 18 and 24 point Tempo. The three-tone Sand grain cover was manufactured by Kingscraft, Inc., of Kingsport, Tennessee.
